

With the kind permission of the Dominican Fathers of St. Mary's Church

THE TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS

will be celebrated in a Solemn High Mass and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament

according to the 1962 Missal of Blessed Pope John XXIII

on the feast of

Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

Sunday, 26 October 2008 at 12:00 Noon

SAINT MARY'S CHURCH

5 Hillhouse Avenue

New Haven

This festive service is sponsored by the Saint Gregory Society of New Haven on the occasion of the opening of the Society's twenty-third anniversary year

Music for the Solemn Mass to be performed by the Schola Cantorum of Saint Mary's Church will include Tomás Luis de Victoria's Missa O quam gloriosum along with motets by Josquin DesPrez and the proper Gregorian Chants

All who would like to experience the traditional liturgy are welcome to attend and to bring family and friends to this joyous celebration marking a historic return of the old Latin Mass to New Haven's oldest Catholic parish.

Mass will be followed by a convivial reception with a talk on Pope Benedict's liturgical vision and the place of the Extraordinary Form of the Mass in the church today. The speaker will be Fr. Paul Keller, O.P., Vice-President of the Society for Catholic liturgy and a former assisting priest at St. Mary's parish.

Visit the Saint Gregory Society's website at: <http://www.saint-gregory.org>